We always have a de-brief session following the Festival so jot down your great ideas as to how we might make September Festival better for next year.

OHHHH NO!!! , you say - not another UPDATE

Rest assured this is the last for this year. Just a few reminders - some of which may have passed by the time you read this.

Final Countdown.

Monday, Tuesday -

- pricing and tent set-up start at 9 am. Bring last-minute Yard Sale or Books contributions.

Wednesday, Thursday

- bake (or perhaps thaw!) your contribution to the Bake Table.
- call Janet or George 250-743-0261 if they don't have your Silent Auction donation yet
- get together the plants, jams or flowers for the Country Store.
- make sure your friends all know it's about to happen!

Friday

- show up by 9 am for Yard Sale set-up
- make a Divine Dessert - don't slice it.
- pre-sales 7 pm, 5 items max, only for those of us who have priced during the week AND are working at 10 am on Saturday so can't get to shop!
- get your SF kit ready; red St. John's shirt, labelled travel mug, your recyclable shopping bag, your sun-hat. Lunch, unless you're planning to patronise one of our fabulous food outlets! Make sure you have your work schedule written down if you're moving between venues.
- co-ordinators - you may want to write and post a list of your helpers. Do you still need to phone any of them?

September Festival 2011

Saturday -

- bring your baking, your dessert, your plants, your smile! You already know it won't rain.
- if you're here all day, park before 10 on the rectory lawn. It will be blocked off from before we open till after we close, so if you're not here that long, you'll want to park on the road out front.

- come in time to help your venue co-ordinator. He or she will have set-up to do, and has probably contacted you already about when to arrive.
- listen during the day for the church bell - it will be rung briefly to indicate the end of another hour, so if you are moving venues, it will remind you when to go.
- watch for Ken, Trisha or Eve collecting money. Please make sure you have the running total signed each time it's collected.
- you may have 'floats' offer to take over so you can take a quick break - but plan some downtime for your lunch.

Sunday -

- 9 am BCP, 11.00 BAS - come and find out how we did!

Looking forward to another exciting September Festival!

Ken, Trisha and the SF committee.
